Dr. Jayne's ALTERATIVE

This valuable preparation combines all the medicinal virtues of those articles which long experience has proved to possess the most safe and efficient alterative and deobstruent properties, procucing for it a world-wide reputation as

THE GREAT PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD AND RENOVATOR OF THE SYSTEM.

Whenever the economy of the life-giving fluid has been vitated, it should be immediately called to help. It drives out pernicious humours, stimulates the absorbents, overcomes the obstinate state of the pores of the skin, regenerates the disordered organism, reestablishes health and spirits, and brings back a bright colour to the pallid complexion.

Thousands of testimonials establish its immense success for curing Scrofula or King's Evil, Skin and Mercurial diseases, Boils, Carbuncles and Ulcers, Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, Enlargement and Ulceration of the Bones, Joints, Glands or Ligaments, Erysipelas, Epilepsy, Gout, Rheumatism and all diseases originating from a depraved and imperfect state of the Blood.

DR. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE is compounded from carefully selected drugs; free from all mineral admixtures and may be Safely Relied on by all needing a medicine to build up the system, cleanse the blood and restore the healthy action of the secretive organs.

1°. Que sacaron en el año 1874 Patente por la marca PESCADO en Francia.

2°. Que sacaron Patente de la marca PESCADO en el año 1876 en la Republica Argentina en toda forma para los articulos de FERRETERIA y CUCHILLERIA que acostumbran introducir en este mercado, como marca de COMERCIO y de FABRICA, la cual les fué concedido para SU USO ESCLUSIVO. La Patente fue publicada durante un mes en los diarios, segun lo prescribe la ley, sin que hubo alguien que hubiera protestado contra ella.

3°. Que habiendo sido introducido una imitacion y falsificacion de su marca, acusaron criminalmente la casa que habia cometido este delito. La casa en cuestion, los Sres. Mantels y Pfeiffer, fue condenada y la sentencia publicada en los diarios por cuenta de ella.

4°. Que recien durante la tramitacion del proceso la casa de Mantels y Pfeiffer busco hacer valor la patente de un fabricante en Francia a la Carpa, y pidio su registracion para Coutaret Denise y fils, la que les fue negada por la oficina de patente por ser PROPIEDAD EXCLUSIVA de P. Dillemann & Co. en la Republica Argentina, como marca de COMERCIO, y de FABRICA.

5°. Por ultimo recurso se dirigio la casa de Mantels y Pfeiffer al ejecutivo en apelacion para obtener el registro de la marca Carpa, y el Exm. Gobierno ha tenido a bien, concederle la parte, de lo que es PROPIEDAD NUESTRA, adquirida en toda forma, como lo prescibe la ley.

6°. Al fin diremos, que todos los ferreteros que vienen a nuestra casa, saben que si la marca Pescado ha adquerido una cierta fama es porque hemos trabajado durante muchos años, a espender los articulos de esta clase en la mejor calidad.

En cuanto a las apreciaciones, que ciertas personas se han permitido hacer de nuestro modo de proceder, no hay necesidad de defendernos, 32 años de vida comercial en esta plaza bastan para habernos hecho conocer.

AL PUBLICO

La casa de Dillemann & Co. ha creido conveniente llamar la atencion publica por medio de los diarios sobre una cuestion de marcas que ha tenido con nosotros y que ha concluido ahora con nuestra mas completo triunfo.

A estas publicaciones contestamos

1. Que la marca carpa (UN PESCADO) es la propiedad de los fabricantes en cuchilleria Srs. Contaret-Denise & Fils quienes lo poseen hace mas de 60 años.
2. Que nosotros hemos presentado poder de dichos fabricantes.
3. Que si la casa de Dillemann & Co. ha hecho registrar aqui en su nombre la marca pescado era con el evidente objeto de usurpar los derechos de nuestros representados.
4. Que es ridiculo de Dillemann y Co. llamar imitation y falsificacion los cuchillos importados por nosotros y comprados al fabricante (verdadero dueño de la marca de de 60 años.)
5. Que Dillemann & Co. no son fabricantes sino introductores como nosotros, no tiene valor su pretension de haber anotado la marca Pescado como suya en un pueblito de Francia cuando debian registrarlo en el Ministerio de artes y oficios de Paris lo que no consta que hayan hecho.
6. Que por toda contestacion a todos los desahogos de los Srs. Dillemann y Co. agregamos el decreto del Gobierno Nacional.

Por los fundamentos del precedente dictamen del Sr. Procurador General de la Nacion queda sin efecto la resolucion de 24 Octubre 1878 por la que la Oficina de Marcas de Fabrica y Patentes de Invencion denego a los Srs. Mantels y Pfeiffer la marca CARPA que estos solicitaron en representacion de los Srs. Coutaret-Denise et Fils para articulos de cuchilleria, y vuelva el espediente a dicha Oficina para que sin perjuicio a los Srs. Dillemann & Co. verifique el registro correspondiente en los terminos de la Ley.

Comuniquese, publiquese e insertese en el R. N.

ROCA
A. del Viso.

Como se ve este decreto pone fin a cualquier polemica y no justifica de ningun modo el proceder de la casa de Dillemann & Co, a pesar de sus 32 años de vida comercial en esta plaza.

THE VILLEGAS EXPEDITION.

The telegrams which we are receiving from General Villegas have a much deeper importance for our readers than is generally imagined. His laconic description of the country through which he is passing has been published in all the papers. Except Musters, no one else has told us anything of those splendid camps that lie south of the Rio Negro, and which to the present were considered desert, inhospitable wilds; but the Villegas expedition sheds a new light on that forgotten territory, and is destined to give to our hardy countrymen who have settled in the valley of the Chubut the very richest lands to be found in this Republic.

Up to the present the Welsh colonists have been hemmed in to a small tract of land whose fertility depended upon the periodical flooding of the Chubut river. On the one side they were shut in by the Atlantic and on the other by the Indians; but President Roca, fully aware that these hardy colonists were deprived of the most fertile lands through the neglect of the Government to drive back the Indians, organized the present expedition, which is now promising such splendid results.

The whole back country of the Chubut is now being reclaimed, to be handed by the Minister of the Interior to Mr Jones, for an unlimited Welsh colonization. This immense country stretches back to the Andes and is watered by the Chubut river. The Welshmen have got such a foothold at the mouth of the river that they may well count on every league of land on both sides of it as their own up to its source, and, under the very able management of Mr Jones, we may look for a development of agricultural industry down there that will put the Santa Fe colonies, with all their fame, to the test to rival.

The Rev. Mr Williams, the Welsh Pastor, who has just arrived, had an interview yesterday with the President of the Republic, and H.E expressed to Mr Williams his great anxiety to see the whole valley peopled by Welshmen, the climate being more akin to their native air than any other part of the Republic. The President promised the Rev. Mr Williams every aid that the Government can afford to make the colonists prosperous, contented and happy, and in the way of chacra land grants to the colonists the very greatest liberality, the object of the Government being to afford the Welsh colonists, who were so long shut up in such a narrow tract, more room for expansion. President Roca heard with the greatest pleasure of the arrival of 40 Welsh families for the colony, and assured the Rev. Mr Williams that his Government would take immediato steps to forward them to the Chubut.

In view of the new country now thrown open to our countrymen, and the determination of President Roca to protect and help the colonists, we believe that in a few years the Welsh colonists will much increase. Up to the present there was always the great difficulty about the land, but General Villegas is at last removing that difficulty, and one of the brightest pictures of the Roca Administration will be the peaceful settlement of this new territory by ten thousand hardy and industrious Welshmen.

The Cordillera's Mails.

Paris, March 13th.

The House of Lords is still discussing the Transvaal Question with an excitement only equalled by that which accompanied the news of the Candahar disaster.

The opposition attacks the tardy action of the Ministry after the double defeat of General Colley. Earl Granville contradicts the statement that negotiations had been opened after the victory of the Boers; the latter had taken the initiative in the matter and the reply of the British Government was sent before anything was known of the reverses of the troops at the Cape.

Public opinion in England is becoming every day stronger in favour of making peace with the Boers. There is a strong feeling in the House of Lords against any peace till the Boers are well beaten, but the vast majority in the House of Commons is for making peace at once.

The Prohibition of Arms Bill (Ireland) has been passed in the House of Commons, and will of course be at once sanctioned by the Lords. It is said that the Land Bill will be opposed by the Home Rulers as utterly inadequate and by the Tories as an attack on the rights of property and fredom of contract. A somewhat far-fetched rumour to the effect that the Premier will offer a seat in the Cabinet to Earl Derby, in order to propitiate the Conservatives, is current.

The following telegram was received in Paris, from St. Peters burg, relating to the murder of the Czar:—

"At 2½ p. m. the Emperor of Russia was returning in his carriage to the Palace, accompanied by escort of his Guards.

"An Orsini bomb-shell was thrown by an unknown hand in the direction of the carriage, exploding in the midst of the soldiers that formed the escort, severely wounding an officer, five or six soldiers and several people, who were witnessing the passing of the Czar.

"The Czar ordered the carriage to be stopped, with the intention of helping the wounded, when another Orsini bomb was pitched alongside him, exploding and wounding him in both legs and in the stomach.

"In the midst of the greatest confusion the Emperor was borne to his carriage senseless and taken to the Winter Palace, where he expired at 4 p.m.

"The news of the catastrophe spread like lightning through the capital, and crowds assembled at the gates of the palace.

"The anxiety in the capital is intense. Order, nevertheless, prevails everywhere, and there are no probabilities of disturbance. All the necessary preparations have been taken and the military have been posted, whilst numerous arrests have been effected.

"The individual who threw the first Orsini bomb has been seized, but the one who threw the second one is unknown and has dissappeared. On receipt of the news of the Czar's death the people rushed to acclaim the new Emperor: all the troops took the oath of fealty: and to-morrow the new Emperor will receive the oaths of the authorities in the Winter Palace.

"The assassin who threw the first bomb is a young man of 21 years, a student in the Mining School and Roussakoff by name. The persons wounded by the first bomb are more numerous than thought at first, and many have died: the number of killed and wounded amounts to twenty.

"The artillery of the fortress saluted the elevation of the new Czar: the Imperial palace was crowded with people eager to witness the event and see the Emperor and Empress as they passed to the Cathedral: applause greeted the new Emperor and Empress on all sides.

"When taking the oaths as Czar Alexander III,, he took the crown himself and put it on his head. The ladies of the Court appeared in the traditional Russian national costume. It is supposed that General Loris Melikoff will be entrusted with a post of the very highest importance."

Advices from Germany state that the German Parliament had concluded the first debate on the project, authorising the Government to present the budget of two years and to extend the legislative period by four years.

An agent has arrived in Berlin to negotiate the sale of the Hawai islands to Germany: Bismarck seems determined on acquisition of these distant possessions. The official papers state that the Colombian Government has given full satisfaction to the complaints of Germany owing to outrages committed on German subjects during a revolution in the city of Buscaramanga.

The Duke of Aosta, now completely convalescent, has left for Berlin to represent the King of Italy at the royal marriage.

The two young sons of the King of Sweden have arrived in Rome.

It appears that in the late aristocratic receptions in Rome several etiquette altercations occurred between the ladies, giving rise to many unqualified remarks and inuendos.

BANQUET TO DEAN DILLON.

On Thursday night a magnificent farewell banquet was given to Dean Monsignor Dillon, at the Confiteria del Aguila, by several of his private friends, on the occasion of his approaching departure for Ireland as Immigration Commissioner for this country. The 'menu' was of the most recherche kind, and the greatest animation and cordiality prevailed while knife and fork did their work on the sumptuous viands.

When the champagne was uncorked, Mr John Dillon, Chief of the Immigration Department, proposed the health of the guest of the evening: he dwelt in eloquent terms on the great interests involved for the country in the Dean's mission, highly enlogised his qualifications, both as a clergyman, a patriot and a well-wisher of this country for the important trust confided to him, and called on all to quaff a flowing bumper to his prosperous voyage and success.

Mr. Laurence Garrahan followed in a forcible speech, and referred to the influential position held in this country to-day by the sons of Irishmen, compared with their status a few years ago; and this happy change he attributed to the patriotism, energy and talents of Dean Dillon, who, although he now goes to Ireland, will in no way cease to influence his countrymen here, who always listen with respect and attention to all he tells them. The speaker drew a graphic picture of the advantages this country offers to immigrants, and hoped to see thousands of Irishmen come to avail themselves of them, in preference to remaining as slaves in the land of their birth. (Tremendous applause for some minutes.)

Mr Rich, Eastman spoke eloquently and at much length, alluding to the General Brown Club, founded by Dean Dillon.

Mr John Murphy next spoke, on the long and valued services of the Dean to his countrymen and to the country. His speech drew great applause.

Mr Deputy E. Murphy spoke eloquently in the same strain, and was much applauded.

Messrs. C Davis, A McLean, J Feeley, G Martin, E Casey, T Kenny and P Ham also gave appropriate toasts on the occasion.

Mr John Dillon drank the health of General Roca, President of the Republic, and Dr. Dardo Roach, our future Governor. Drunk with all the honors.

Mr F Dolan, of Lobos, drank prosperity to the Argentine Republic. Great cheers.

Mr A R Suffern drank the health of our gifted Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr. Irigoyen. (Cheers).

Mr David Suffern drank to the sons of Irishmen who are now in public places. Around the table are Deputies, Judges, Comandantes and Bank Directors—worthy proof of the services of the Dean, who in the Southern Cross always stands up for his country. (Cheers).

Dean Dillon closed the toasts in an eloquent and feeling address, and the company broke up at an advanced hour.

The Boer War

The following article from a Liverpool colleague gives the best resumen of the causes of this war that we have seen as yet, and it will interest our readers:—

"It is not often in war that one can get speech of the enemy and hear from his own lips what he has to say for himself. During the famous pause in the battle of Talavera the common soldiers of the two armies exchanged compliments and keepsakes across the stream to which, when fatigued with slaughter, they went down to drink. The commanders, better acquainted with the usages of warfare, kept haughtily apart, impatient only for the resumption of the strife. Almost unique is the kind of voice that comes to us out of the carnage of Majuba. Our enemy there speaks to us face to face, reasons with us, tells us we are unjust—does not boast of his two victories over us, but says simply that he won them because the God of Battles fought on his side.

It is too late now to argue the question, we suppose; but, as we have never approved of this war, and as in the main we agree with Mr Joubert's view of its injustice, it is only right that the facts relating to it should be once more, before they are utterly lost to sight in the dust and smoke, the passion and the heat of the battlefield, be put briefly upon record.

The first thing to be remembered is that it was by no act of their own that the Boers of Cape Colony came under our dominion in 1806; and the next, that they never took kindly to our rule. Previously to that date, indeed, they had revolted from their own mother country much as the American colonies revolted from Great Britain, and with the same immediate success. The abolition of slavery throughout our dominions broke the last link that bound them to us, and in 1836 a large section of them, after converting their farm sand other property into oxen, flocks, and waggons, formally renounced their allegiance to the British Crown, and, abandoning their kindred, their friends,and their homes, moved out into the wilderness. The spirit in which they acted may be gathered from the address wh ch they issued on reaching the boundary of our then dominion. 'We quit this colony,' they said under the full assurance that the English Government has nothing more to require of us and will allow us to govern ourselves without interference in future. We propose, in the course of your journey and upon arriving at the country in which we shall permanently reside, to make known to the native tribes our intentions, and our desire to live in peace and friendly intercourse with them. We are resolved, wherever we go, that we will uphold the first principles of liberty; and, whilst we will take care that no one shall be held in a state of slavery, it is our determination to maintain such regulations as may suppress crime and preserve proper relations between master and servant.' As the 'Great Trek'—to give it the historic name by which it is still known to the Boers—passes slowly away in a long line of lumbering waggons beyond the horizon, the reader will do well to note carefully the terms of this declaration with regard to slavery and the native tribes. They touch upon the crux of the present and every other dispute which we have had with these sturdy and uncompromising Dutchmen. For two long years the exiles wandered over the apparently measureless waste, seeking but finding no suitable resting place—their flocks ravaged by lions, their laagers assailed by hostile bands of natives, their ranks thinned by drought and exposure. At length their foremost horsemen, ascending a lofty plateau, beheld spread out before them a vast fruitful valley, rolling away in grassy billows towards the sunrise and the sea, dotted here and there with shrubs and trees, crossed and re-crossed by broad river and silver stream—a veritable Promised Land, untilled, tenantless, and waiting only to be possessed. Here the Boers built their new homesteads, and thus came about the founding of Natal. A long struggle ensued between the settlers and the neighbouring Zulus; but these at length were overthrown in a great battle by the Black Umvolosi, and a prosperous future seemed at last to be dawning upon the nascent colony, when the British power, entirely unasked, stepped in for their protection. Then, as now, there were the usual stories about oppression of the natives on the one hand, native resentment on the other, and, in the result, wars which imperilled the safety of our own colonies. In spite of the fact that the Boers had proved themselves strong enough to hold their own, had founded Durban and Pietermaritzburg, and established a regular form of government, the British authorities insisted upon 'protecting' them, and, to that end, marched a body of troops into their country, and in the name of the Queen took formal possession of Natal. The Dutchmen resisted—as who would not?—but finding resistance useless, and being ready as before to sacrifice everything for freedom, they once more turned their farms into flocks and herds, and again 'trekkled ont' into the wilderness. The miseries of this second exodus are said to have been greater even than those of the first; but at length a new settlement was formed between the Orange and the Vaal rivers. It was useless, however. The British power was again upon the track of the unhappy Boers; and, once more annexed, they once more went into voluntary exile. This was in 1848. Before 1852 the wanderers had settled down in the region beyond the Vaal, where at length peace seemed finally about to smile upon them; for in that year a formal convention was entered into between the British Government and the Boers, by which the former 'guaranteed in the fullest manner to the emigrant farmers beyond the Vaal River the right to manage their own affairs, and to govern themselves according to their own laws, without any interference on the part of the British Crown,' which, it was further added, 'shall make no encroachment on the territory beyond and to the north of the Vaal River.'

This is the gist of the famous Sand River Convention about which we have heard so much of late. It was upon the strength of this convention that the Boers established and carried on the Transvaal Republic, and it is to its indisputable guarantees that they now appeal as their justification for taking up arms They stoutly deny that they ever voted for annexation. They say that in this matter the British Government was grossly misled by its agents; and it must be confessed that both their previous history and their present attitude give colour to their statement. After all, however, it is the native question which lies at the bottom of all the mischief. The allegation against the Boers is, and always has been, that, by kidnapping native women and children, and reducing them to a condition of virtual slavery, they provoke wars with the neighbouring tribes, and thus endanger the peace of all their fellow colonists. The charge has never been satisfactorily established, though there can be no doubt that the views of the Transvaal Republic with regard to the native rights differed materially from our own—that is, in theory. Whether they differed so much when reduced to practice is a question upon which the late Zulu King, Cetewayo, would perhaps be better able than we to form an impartial judgment.

LATEST FROM PORONGOS.

March 24th and 25th were the days selected for the autumnal gathering of the Porongos Jockey Club. We fear that the community at large, and more particularly the members of the P.J.C,, have incurred the enmity of the weather clerk.

The great storm in September, that which played such havoc amongst the flocks and herds on both sides of the Plate, commenced on the days selected for the spring races. Then wet and cold did their best to spoil sport—now heat and drought have combined to bring about the same result. In fact, since the September storms we have had no rain to speak of: a heavy shower on New Year's Day slightly refreshed the scorched earth, but hot suns and drying winds soon brought it back to its parched-up condition. Since then the weather has been extremely hot, the thermometer, day after day, marking from 92 deg. to 94 deg. in the shade. The 25th of March was, perhaps, one of the sultriest days of this very sultry summer, and now, as we pen these lines, some 24 hours later, winter has suddenly put in an appearance. The thermometer has fallen to 57 deg. Fahr., and the poor cattle, sheep and horses have to bear cold as well as starvation. Talk of England's variable climate, its variations are nothing compared to the chops and changes we have to endure in the Banda Oriental. Points of cattle are to be seen in every direction, roaming away from their 'querencia' in search for a bite of grass. It is a case of 'water! water everywhere, but not a drop for irrigation.' Every hollow has its 'arroyo' or 'cañada,' with plenty of water in it, but much below the level of the surrounding lands. Were irrigation possible, it would save the country an incalculable amount of dollars. Cattle are selling for the value of their hides. Sales 'al corte' have been made as low as $2 50c.. Except close into Montevideo there is absolutely no grass, and a severe winter will certainly kill more than half the horned stock in the country.

Owing, doubtless, to the 'seca,' the fields for the different races were very small, as the extreme hardness of the ground made the training work difficult, and more than half of the horses entered were unable to run through being lame.

The great success of Mr. O'Neil was the most marked feature of the meeting, a success which he fully deserved, as his horses came to the post in the pink of condition.

The following is an account of the running:—

Five furlongs on the flat.

Weight, 11st 6lb.

Mr. O'Nell's Macboy (owner) .. 1
Mr J Simmonet's Negro' (a native) 2
Mr J Garat's Charrua (owner).. 3

Also ran Mr Gonzales's Bagual, Mr Murphy's Fly-by-Night. Negro was backed against the field, but the bay disposed of him in rather hollow fashion and won easily.

Steeple-chase. Twice round 3¼ miles.

Weight—11st.

Mr O'Neil's blg Robert the Devil (owner)..... 1
Mr Garland's grg Chambon (Mr Dick)..... 2
Mr Murphy's bg Too Late (owner)..... 3

When the flag fell Too Late a once took the lead, with Chambon in close attendance, and Robert the Devil, who had made a slight mistake at the first fence, followed a length or two behind. For three parts of the journey they maintained the same order, Going through the ploughed field the second time, the Devil, full of running, closed with his horses, all three jumping the last stone wall abreast. Immediately afterwards Too Late had shot his bolt; the other two then ran home a close race, which resulted in the victory of the Devil, thus reversing the running of September, when Chambon beat his conqueror of today. Time, 8 min. 55 sec.

Flat Race. One mile 200 yards.

Mr J Simmonet's ch g No-te-Pique 14st (a native) 1
Colonel Amativia's dun g Lonzo, 11st 7lbs (Mr A. Galand).... 2

Notwithstanding his 21lbs penalty, No-te-pique always had the race in hand and won easily.

Maiden Steeple chase. 1 mile 5 furlongs,

Weight—12st.

Mr. Garland's Scaramouch (Dick) 1
Mr, O'Neil's Tisico (owner)..... 2

As is usual in races for horses which have not before run in steeple chases, this race was a chapter of accidents. Fly-by-Night began by whipping round from the first fence, and though he cleared it at the second attempt, he was not in the hunt afterwards. The others negotiated successfully the succeeding ditch and the two stone walls, but at the post, a rail fence, both Scaramouch and Canario refused, and required a second trial to get over. This gave Tisico a long lead, but Scaramouch was so much his superior in speed and condition, that he was able to overhaul him, and eventually won the race. Canario fell at the fence following the one which he had refused.

Second Day.

First Race. 2¼ miles on the flat
Mr O'Neil's Macboy, 11st (owner) 1
Mr M Costa's Chaná 12st (a native) 2
Mr A Garland's Van John, 11st 7lbs (owner)..... 3

This proved to be the race of the meeting. Chaná was considered such a certainty, that only two out of a number of horses entered came to the post to oppose him. His owner, and, in fact, all the native party, backed him freely against the field at 6 to 4; and, in some instances, at 2 to 1. Seldom has such a close race been seen over such a distance of ground, as during the whole time the two leading horses ran locked together. Macboy, favored by his inside position, always held an advantage, which he maintained to the end, the judge's verdict being in his favor by a head. Time, 4min. 50sec.

Second Race.

One mile 5 furlongs. Steeple-chase.

Weight—11st 7lbs, with certain penalties and allowances.

Mr. O'Neil's Robert the Devil had a walk over for this race, as his only opponent, Chambon, would have had to-day to concede him weight, and therefore did not come to the post.

The Consolation Flat Race was won by Negro beating two others, and the Consolation Steeple-chase was disputed by Chambon and Too Late, and resulted in the victory of the former.

The only accident which happened during the meeting occurred in the last race, a scrath steeple-chase between Mr Short's Redman and Mr Murphy's Fly-by Night—owners up—13st 7lb each. Mr Short's horse came down at one of the walls, breaking his rider's collar-bone. Luckily doctors were at hand to repair the damage, and, as we write, Mr. Short is in a fair way towards a speedy recovery.

The next races will take place on the 8th and 9th of September.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was one of the liveliest days we remember for a long time: such despatching of mails and of passengers, such leave-taking, and such a demand for pocket-handkerchiefs we dont remember since the famous fashionable exodus in the Boyne in 1872, and we sincerely hope that our travelling subscribers per Douro will have the very pleasantest time of it by sea and land till we see them again.

The Nacional's telegrams yesterday were very newsy. Two fires in Montevideo yesterday—one a tobacco store, where 80,000 pats ended in smoke; the other a watchmaker's where no tick will ever be given again. There are renewed rumours of an invasion by Latorre because Santos refuses him leave to return to Banda Oriental. Public anxiety is intense in Montevideo.

The Pacific steamer Cordillera brings full particulars of the assassination of the late Emperor of Russia, which will be found in another column. As we feared when the telegraph announced the crime, several people were killed and wounded by the exploding shell that killed the poor Czar. What strikes us most in the accounts to hand is the scanty particulars about the Czar's death, while there is plenty about the cheers of the people and rush of obsequious courtiers to salute the new Emperor, who appears to have clapped the crown on his head almost before the body of his father was cold. It is enough to breed red republicans and Nihilists in thousands, to see court usage force a man into such indecent haste. The papers say there will be a stiff struggle over Mr. Gladstone's Land Reform Bill, as the Home Rulers have determined to oppose it as a half-measure that can do no good, and the Tories will denounce it as too whole a measure

The La France brings later dates than the Cordillera. The new Emperor of Russia says in his Proclamation that he swore to his father on his dying bed to remain faithful to the policy of their ancestors, so 'adios' all hopes of a Constitution for Russia. Awful inundations in Austria and Hungary. Republican demonstrations in Lisbon. Banquet to Parnell in Paris by the Irish residents. Many public meetings in England demanding peace with Boers.

The state of the Catalinas Mole shows the enormous import business now going on. The deposits are crammed, and on the mole and all about are heaps of cases and packages covered with tarpaulin, to preserve them from the weather. The extension of this mole will be completed in a week or ten days, and great further facilities for landing goods will thereby be afforded. The trade of this port is growing wonderfully.

The Lord Mayor, in a circular, reminds his Municipal colleagues that they have only held 13 (an unlucky number) meetings during the last two months, and that the ordinary sessions close on the 30th. His Lordship also says that if the enormous amount of business on hands is to be got through, the City Fathers must henceforward meet daily.

The 'Alta Voz' Gower-Bell Telephone line from the Central Office to Barracas will be open on Monday, and in a few days after one to the Catalina mole. so that merchants can despatch their goods direct from their own desks. Captain Manton is pushing this telephone business ahead with the characteristic full steam of his countrymen.

The hull of the wrecked river steamer Saturno has been successfully cut in two and will be transported to the ship-yards of Salto, B.O., to be 'fixed' up again as a new ship. Captain Magnasco sticks to his ship like a leech, sleeps on the wreck, and has not left her (except an hour one day, to get his breakfast) since the disaster.

The frontier troops have had another brush with the Indians, on the river Salado, in San Luis. The savages had 19 killed and 11 taken prisoners; of the troops four were wounded, including an ensign.

The Rosetti has been fitted up to take the place of the Villarino on the Patagones and Bahia Blanca route, as the latter steamer, we are rather surprised to learn, is in need of extensive repairs. The Rosetti will sail on the 15th inst.

Thanks to the energetic President of the Municipality, the Recoleta Cemetery is no longer a disgrace to the city, and has been so improved and beautified that it is really difficult to recognise it as the same place, A pions lady millionaire gave the Lord Mayor $80,000 mjc to build a new Chapel in the Cemetery, and it is already far advanced.

Some of the papers say that Dr Victorino de la Plaza will be the Finance Minister of the Province in Dr Roach's administration. If this news be true, the province may congratulate itself.

The French Kermesse opens this evening in the Skating Rink at 8 o'clock. The magnificent service of Sevres and other gifts to this Bazaar from the French Government are well worth risking a few dollars in tickets to win. The Sevres porcelain set will be a fortune for whoever wins it. There are also many more articles of beauty and value amongst the prizes.

Of a miserly man who died of softening of the brain, a local paper said: 'His head gave way, but his hand never did. His brain softened but his heart couldn't.'

King Alfonso of Spain and his Queen, Christina, are a happy couple. They are living quietly at the palace of La Granja, and pass their time in walking about the grounds, hunting etc. Alfonso receives petitioners without ostentation and is glad when he can satisfy their modest requests.

We remind our Lomas readers that in consequence of the change in the Southern Railway time table, Divine Service at Trinity Church will commence to-morrow at 2, 30 p.m.

There will be Mass, and Sermon in English, to-morrow at the San Francisco church, as usual, at 11 o'clock.

Three Spaniards are now building a tiny skiff at Montevideo and mean to sail to old Spain in her, in emulation of Fondacaro's feat in the Leon de Caprera. The boat is being built of Chaco wood, and will be named the Cartagena. Strange to say, the Italians in the sister city are betting hard against the success of the venture, which, we suppose, means that they do not consider Spaniards as good sailors as Italians, an opinion which, in justice to the Iberians, we must say, is not proven by any remarkable event that we can remember.

The Paris papers announce that there are 16,000 lady holders of the Panama Canal Stock. This shows their sense. That Canal is bound to pay, and splendidly too.

Dr Felix Frias will leave for Europe on the 15th inst.

The latest advices from Bolivia say that President Campero has had seven people shot for professing Chilian sympathies. A nice, free pleasant place to live in Bolivia must be.

The Italian steamer Europa appears to have taken a very large number of third-class passengers to the Old World—no less than 250; also a full complement of first class travellers.

In Brazil, at Caxambu, they have discovered a mineral water that beats Vichy hollow in the cure of liver complaints.

The Welsh emigrants who arrived here in the Leibnitz and are now in town will, it is said, be forwarded to the Chupat Colony in the National troopship Cabo de Hornos.

Rejected lovers need never despair. There are four-and-twenty hours in a day, and not a moment in the twenty-four in which a woman may not change her mind.

The Emperor Maximilian's scarf-pin, set with a hundred diamonds of fine water and valued at $f.2,500, is now in possession of an Indiana lady, whose husband purchased it some time since in Mexico for $f.450.

Mr Hunter, Inspector of Machinery, has called for the eye of the Captain General of Ports on the numerous small steam tenders in this port.

The Libertad, in commenting on the truly shocking condition of the Hospitals in this city, as revealed on the application of the President of the Municipality to the National Government for a loan of 60,000 pats to put these establishments in a decent state, says that it is worse than scandalous, it is criminal, to support 14 useless Provincial Governments, with Ministers, Judges, Governors etc, while, in the only lunatic asylum in the country the afflicted inmates are sleeping three in in a bed for want of the money wasted on these unnecessary Provincial Governments: and that one good National Government is all a nation numbering barely 2½ millions of people can possibly want. Hear! Hear! colleague. This is the sound policy we should like to hear more of.

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from the Rev Father Vaughan who, we are happy to see in excellent health after his hurried run to Europe and back. At Lisbon he heard of his father's death, and returned at once on the mission he so zealously pursues in this country.

The weakness in the gold market continues spite of the great efforts of the bulls; gold opened at 28.60, dropped to 55 and closed at 28.60. The cash sales amounted to 80,390 pats. but the sales for the end of the month reached 336,000 pats, opening at 28.55, dropping to 28.50, and closing at 28.55; sales for the end of May were much freer, 110,000 sold. Prices for that date opened at 28.45, dropped to 28.40 and closed at 28.45. Total sales of the day 568,390 pats.

Cedulas quiet, but firm, at 94. National Bank shares easy, a few sold cash at 80½ and for end of month at 81. They say that the delivery of the stock at the end of the month will be very heavy, and much money will be required to carry it, but last month they said the same, and there was money enough for all. Bonos Provinciales firm at 1½ prem.

The splendid str. La France has arrived with 800 passengers on board, and a large cargo.

Owing to the accident to the str. Senegal the Portuño Chargeur steamer will take her place; she is due on 13th inst. from Havre and comes up to this port, whence she will sail for Bordeaux; she is a splendid ocean steamer and has as good accommodations as the Senegal, hence passengers will lose nothing by the change.

Exchange ruled the same this morning: some drawers had to accept ¼, and we hear bills remained over, but they will probably be passed to-morrow or Monday for the Leibnitz mails.

This was one of the greatest leave taking days we ever witnessed in this city. The Central Station was crowded with passengers and their friends who left by the Boca for the roads. Mr Crabtree's arrangements were admirable, and spite of the numerous special trains he provided, the regular service of the line was not interrupted. At 12 o'clock there was a grand farewell lunch at Mr Joseph Drysdale's Calle Moreno, and at 1 o'clock Mr Thomas Drysdale and friends started by special train for the Boca; the Station was crowded with merchants, bankers etc. to say good bye. At 2 o'clock Mr and Mrs Casey started and the Station again thronged. Next followed the Station again thronged. Next followed the Station again thronged. Next followed
